DEDICATION

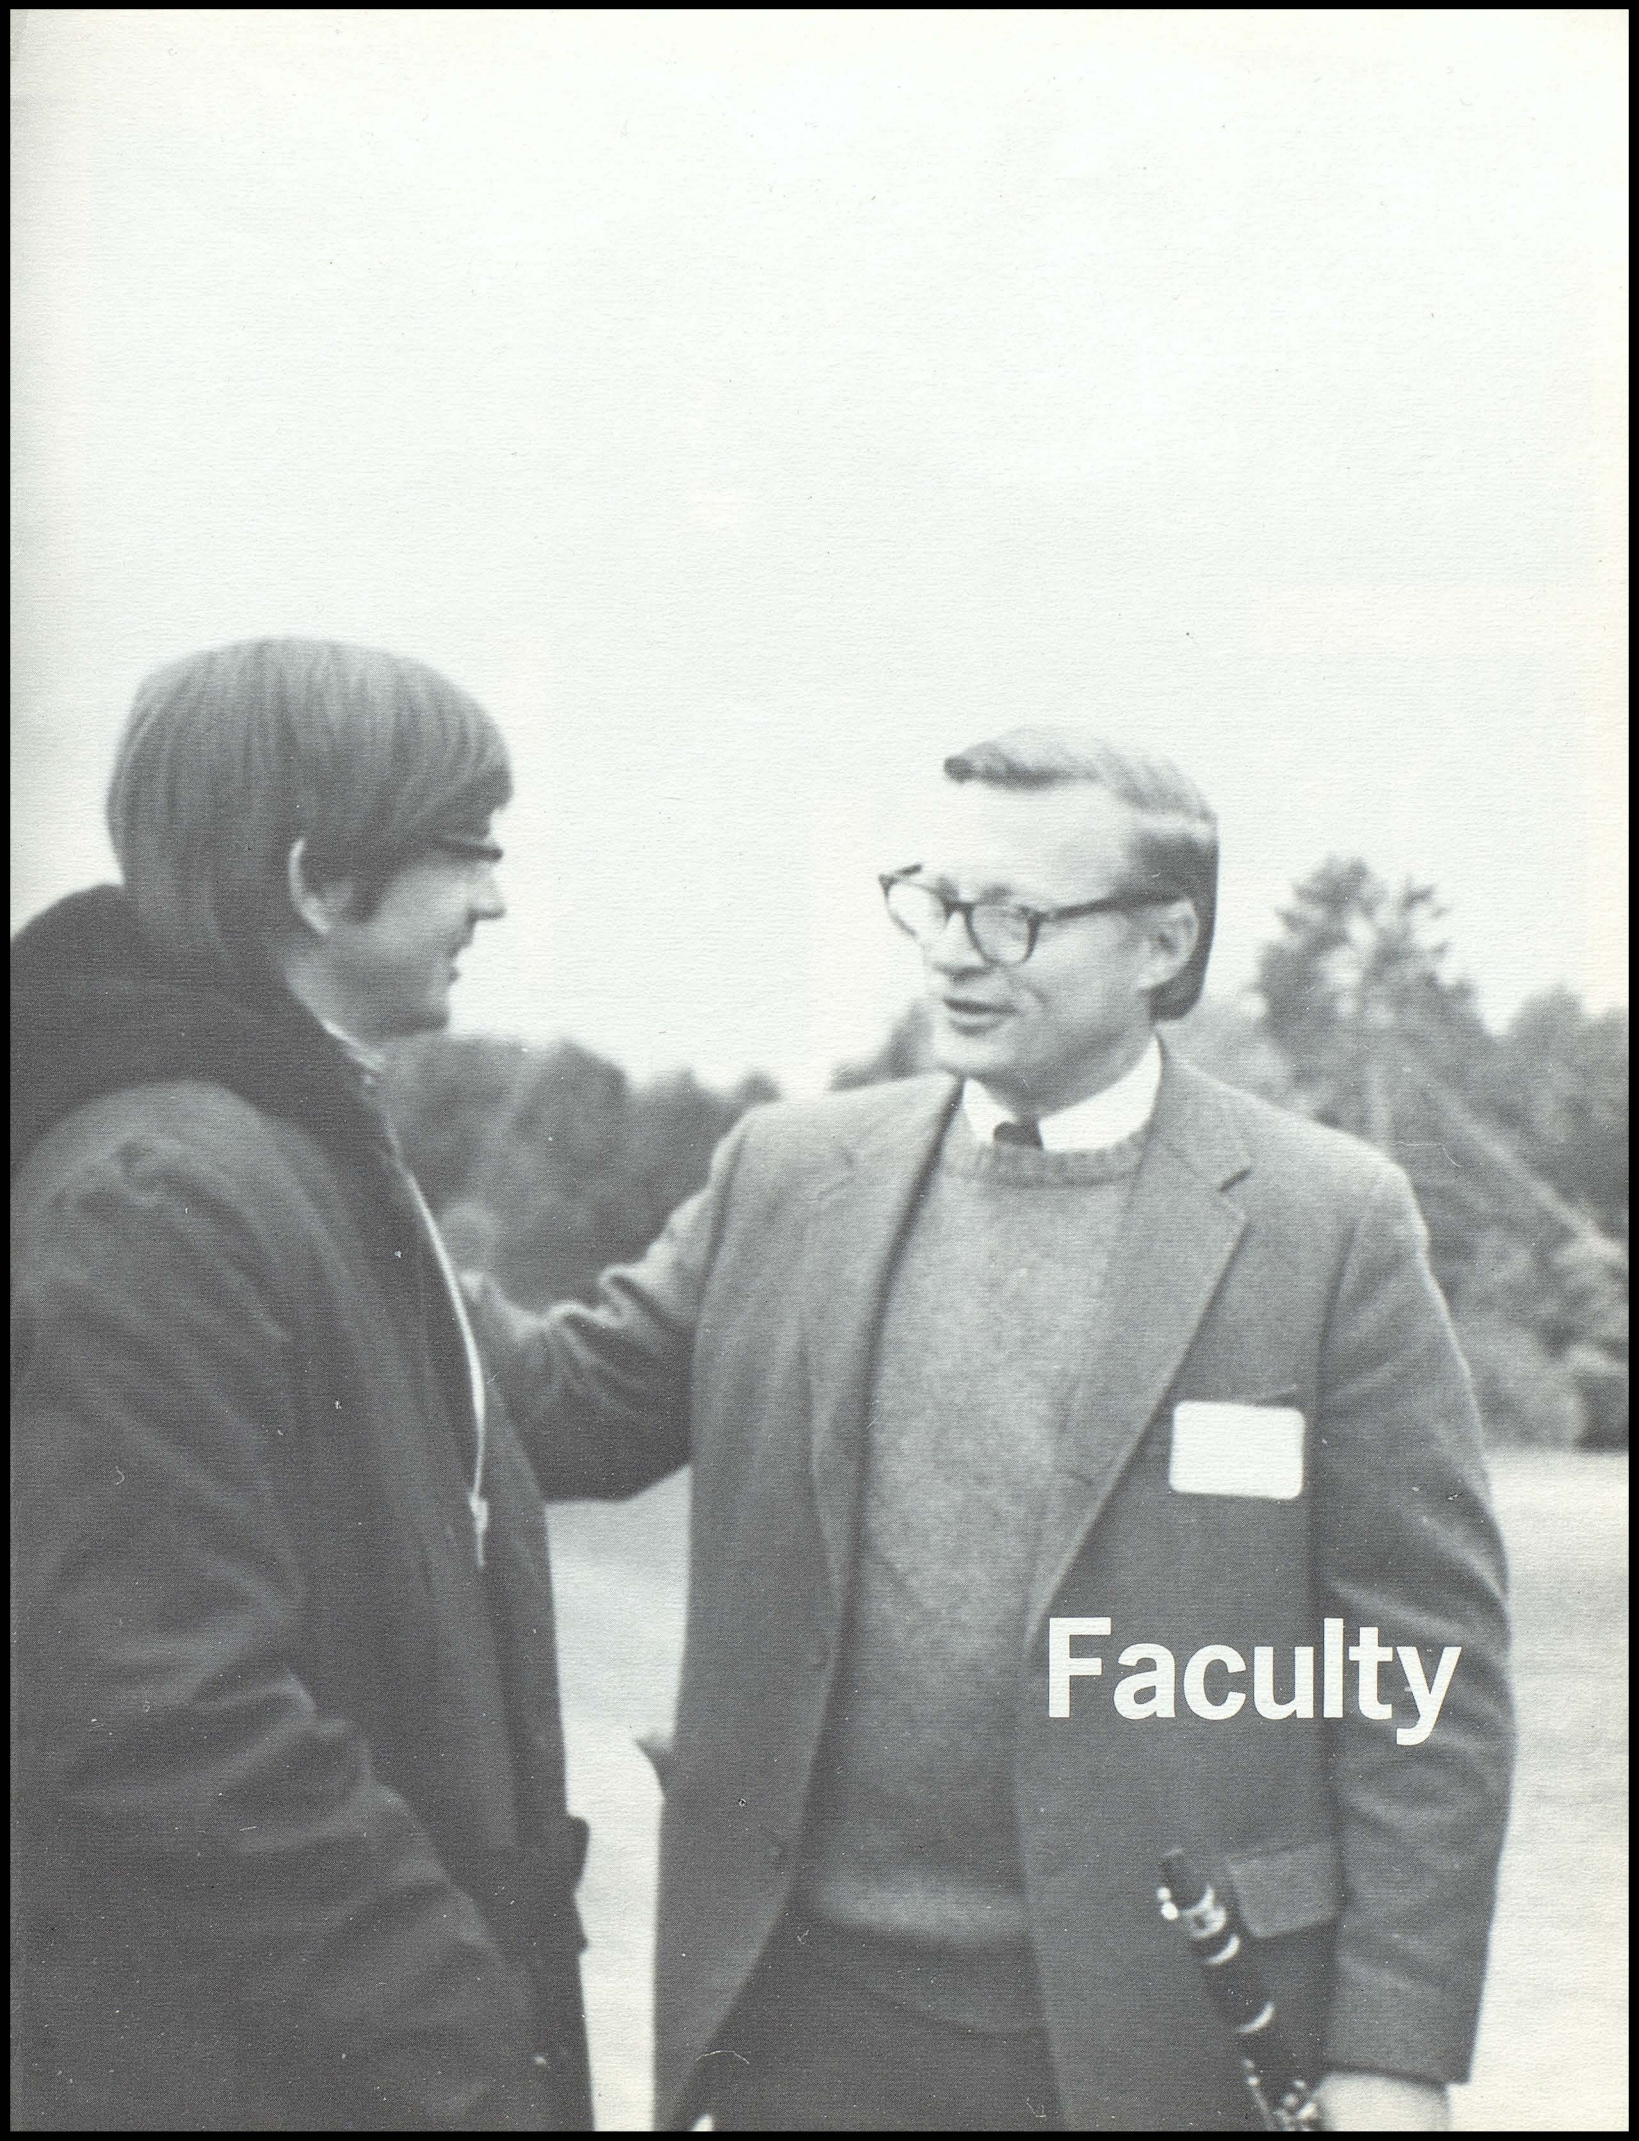

Somehow a yearbook dedication seems a very small tribute to so great a man. In the hearts of those who knew him, he will always live. Croz helped countless people in their time of need and it is truly regrettable that we could not have helped him in his.

While our trustful leader, Mr. Wier, is making waves on his water bed and his assistant, Mac Davis, is getting ready for a fishing trip to Wild River, we find many strange things happening on the second floor with Trowbridge, Campbell, Hills, Madden, and Nichols engrossed in a water fight, with Manfred and Carroll cheering them on. As we walk down the hall, we find Richardson and Soper planning another midnight excursion with Spud giving some assistance from the outside world. We hear a noise from downstairs only to find our two heavyweights, Jenkins and Repp, talking about the sad ending of "Gilligan's Island." As we walk down the first floor hallway, Newton and Baldwin are engrossed in a heavy conversation about hockey. And as we walk further, we hear Cleve singing and Borland complaining about the racket because he has a "HEADACHE." As we do another room check, we find that Caskie, Gorman, and Beckett have passed out. (I wonder why.) We hear a little chatter in Drake's room only to find that Bolton is giving him lessons on "How to Succeed with the Women of Gehring." Down the hall we find Winter and Comins talking about the latest happening on campus, with Hannaford putting in his two cents. Upstairs we find Williams, Renie, and Cunningham playing "B" ball against "Gator," Mendez, and Little Luis. As we begin to do another second floor room check, we find Heino on another weekend, Farley in the infirmary. We hear a splat on the wall only to find that Schreiber was throwing another bun wad to White with Scooter cheering from a safe distance. We go into Zero's room only to find Moore, Ault, Olivier, and Henning talking about those little tin cans. Well, it looks quiet with Butcher, Tib, and Brann all in bed, so I think Tim and I better go practice for tomorrow's J.V. game with the Gold's.

Gehring Hall

It's 10:30 p.m. in Gehring Hall. Janette and I are about to make our nightly room check.

Rosa, Noemi, and Laura are in Noemi's room discussing the soap operas and wondering what's going to happen next. Patsy is catching up on her quick beauty plan—sleep.

Walking into Molly's Inn, we find Munroe, Dionne, Vaughan, and Molly discussing their weekend plans. Anne Thayer is in her nightly hang-out, the bathroom, and Diana is grooving to the sounds of Carole King. Sue Sprague is at the books again.

Karen is in wonderland. I wonder who she's thinking about—Marek? As we go along, we find Gail, Templeton, Kenny, and Tricia figuring out when the next local attack by the teachers is going to be. Moving down to the second floor, we find Cyndi discussing her night affairs while Jane and Sally with their 36-24-36 "towelwise" are listening. We're going down the alley and we come to a door which says, "Don't disturb—not even if you're the President." I wonder what Charles did wrong to Debbie tonight? Next door in Renetta's room, we find Bunnie. Without a doubt, the nightly gossip is in session. Sawyer is asleep. She must have had a hard day. Pleskow, Harrower, and Hartley are on their nightly food hunt. Ratsep is playing the role of Rapunzel with Rick Chandler as her prince. Phyllis and Sullivan are at it again, while Gracie is in the ladies' room making coffee.

Kim is paying her night respect to the watchman. Baker, Bunker, and Dallinger are chatting about the latest letter from Phillippe. Mandrill is on and we find Ault reading her favorite subject—history. Combs is having a nicotine fit as Chaffee tries to round her up a cigarette. As we are about to complete our check, we find Kenwyn knocking on Mitchell's door telling her to lower the stereo.

All of a sudden we hear the slamming of doors, yelling and screaming—we know everything is ok in in Gehring Hall.

For all the excuses one could give about our season, 2-4 I guess the best one is that we lost more than we won. It is difficult not to place importance on records and statistics. We were intercepted a lot and we fumbled a lot and so we lost a lot. Well, so it goes. But, in fact, the season was a great success; we had the best morale and camaraderie ever seen here. We had coaches who were people before coaches. Mr. Feeney, Mr. Cousins, and Mr. Litchfield had undying support; at times they might have felt like dying, and my thanks to them is great.

Gould football is great, an experience that should not be passed up. The best of friends are made on the football field and here at Gould lasting friends are made.

We played tough teams and our team stayed together through thick and thin. I would not give up my experiences at football for anything, and that is the highest praise I can give. Few will ever realize how much they owe to Mr. Feeney. Good luck to next year's team and whip 'em good!

KNEELING: Bill Koptis, Scott Hills, Peter Wiese, John Bliss, Co-Captain John Altgelt, Co-Captain Peter Otto Horndalsveen, Curtis Drake, Mike Moore, David Clough, Scott Clough. STANDING: Coach Newell, John Roberts, John McArdle, Joe Renie, Gary Keay, Tim Jewett, Mark Mitchell, Manfred Huebener, Henning Christensen, Gerti Veldmann, Liz Turner (Manager).

The second season of official soccer at Gould got under way on September 5. This was to be a rebuilding year with only six players returning. However with two weeks of practice and the fine coaching of Mr. Newell, the team was eager for competition.

The first half of the season produced seven straight wins, high team spirit, and a lot of followers. The second half found the team physically beaten, winning only three of the remaining seven games. The highlights of the season came when the team handed defeats to Bridgton and St. Dom's, always strong teams. The overall record was 10-4 while the league record was a disappointing 4-3, which put the team in fourth place.

Horndalsveen, Wiese, Veldman, Christensen, and Roberts led the offense with their efforts. The defense was supported by Scott Clough in goal, Altgelt's big foot and McArdle. The weak point was at the halfback positions which steadily improved with the efforts of Renie, Jewett, Keay, Comins, and Bliss and good coaching. There really was no "bench" because everyone played, which only demonstrates the depth of the team.

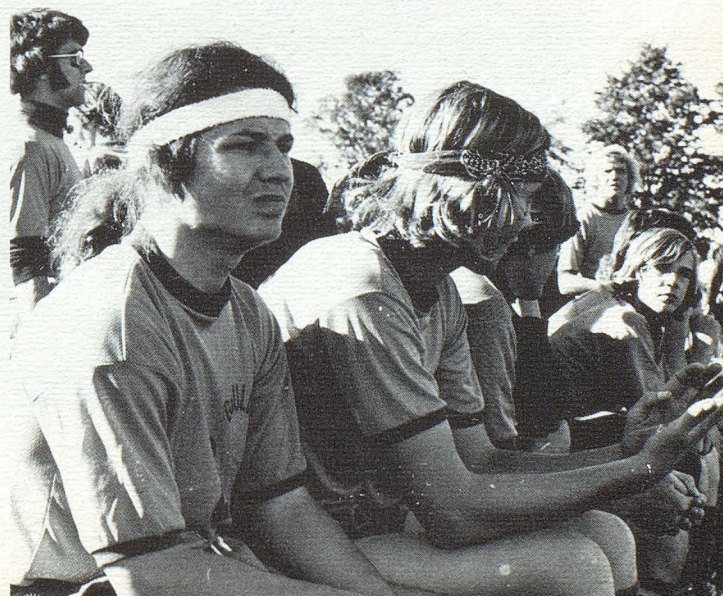

For the first time in our short history of soccer, Gould was represented on the Maine State Prep School All Star Team: Peter Otto Horndalsveen and Peter Wiese on the line, Todd Comins at midfield, and John Altgelt, Henning Christensen, and Gary Keay receiving honorable mention.

Next year again is a year for rebuilding with only seven players returning. A special thanks is in order for Coach Newell's time and dedication, student-coach Jang Jallow and the managers, Lisa Pakulski and Liz Turner.

Soccer

Boys Basketball

This year's basketball season was again very successful and under Coach Hurd's direction, we placed as Runners Up, Class D, in Western Maine.

The tough team defense, which allowed the opposition only 44 points per game was the force that enabled us to get as far as we did in the tournament. Our offense output depended mostly on the effectiveness of the defense.

John Altgelt, Bill Hawk, Charles Ewing, and Charlie Ault led in rebounds with "Gator" Robinson and Roland Cruz going in for most of the layups.

In the course of the season we had many different combinations of players. This was an attempt on Mr. Hurd's part to find the winning combination and I must say that they all came through where we needed them.

Once again the cross-country team had a fabulous season. They were undefeated as well as Maine State champs and New England Class C title holders.

The team certainly proved themselves members of a Gould squad, and gave Mr. Vogt the cooperation needed to build a winning combination.

Receiving awards for the team were Dan Baxter as Most Valuable Runner, Alex Pakulski as Rookie of the Year, and Doug Shaw, Most Improved Runner. Doug injured his knee during the first part of the season and could not run until two weeks before the New England Championships. In that race, though, he managed to pull up nineteenth and fifth for the team—a great accomplishment. Charlie Ault, Dan Baxter, Rick Chandler, and Bill Ash made up the rest of the top five, with Dave Terrio and Alec DesRoches close behind. Hopefully the upcoming underclassmen will be able to help Rick Chandler as next year's captain fill out a team that will once again make Coach Vogt proud. Dedication is the name of the game where cross-country is concerned!

Girls' Basketball

SEATED: Linda Ault, Bunnie Amevor, Molly Matthews (Captain), Lisa Reed, Ellie Hitzrot. STANDING: Coach Berry, Sally Peacock, Patsy Flood, Teal Munroe, Jane Baker (Manager).

The 1972 girls' basketball season was considered a good year. There were only two losses all season (9-2), one against Fryeburg, when Matthews missed two free throws with five seconds left; and the other at home against Oxford Hills, when, after being down by 13 points, we made a great come-back only to lose again in the final seconds by two points.

This year's team was faced with one major problem: Very few teams we played were up to our potential. Poor Mr. Berry would have to tell us NOT to score. We averaged 44 points per game as a team while our opponents only averaged 21.

The J.V. team after hard practices showed how to win while at M.C.I. They proved they could hold their own against anyone. They consistently had good teamwork with Teal, Patsy, Beverley, Janette, and Sally.

The team loses four seniors, Sally Peacock, Bunnie Amevor, Best Defensive Player Lisa Reed, and Captain and Most Valuable Player Molly Matthews. But next year's team should be good with Linda Ault leading returning players. Also coming back will be Most Improved Player Patsy Flood, Janette Kemp, Beverley Forbes, Ellie Hitzrot, and "Earl the Pearl" Munroe.

Thanks to our beloved managers, Jane Baker and Mary Sawyer, who also played when needed.

On behalf of the team I would like to thank Mr. Berry for all he did for us. May you all have the greatest success possible next year.

Last year everyone was a little skeptical about how our teams would fare this year with so many players graduating and Mrs. Feeney "out of action," but needless to say all positions were filled with great ability. This was proved by the varsity and J.V. both doing great jobs, with a fair percentage of wins for each.

The first of the season was slow while players, old and new, adjusted, but by the time positions were fixed, we were going strong. The varsity had only one game left to win with Kents Hill and they would have had the championship, but the game was sadly lost and so was the trophy.

The graduating field hockey jocks leave knowing that next year's teams will be as good, if not better, and to those remaining good luck, and make sure Uncle Bear puts the lid back on the trash can!

The Girls' Alpine Team had an undefeated season, winning everything from the New England's (for the second consecutive year) to the MAISAD Meet (combining together a perfect score) to the Maine State Class A Meet in which we defeated the nine years' champions, Edward Little.

Everyone on the team earned her letter; Kristin Wiese was awarded a trophy for the "Most Valuable Skier" and Georgia Saviers for the "Most Improved Skier."

The outlook for next year is good with Georgia returning as Captain, along with the Almighty Sally Seaweed Seemann, Gail Emmons, Debbie Hewson, and Martha Combs.

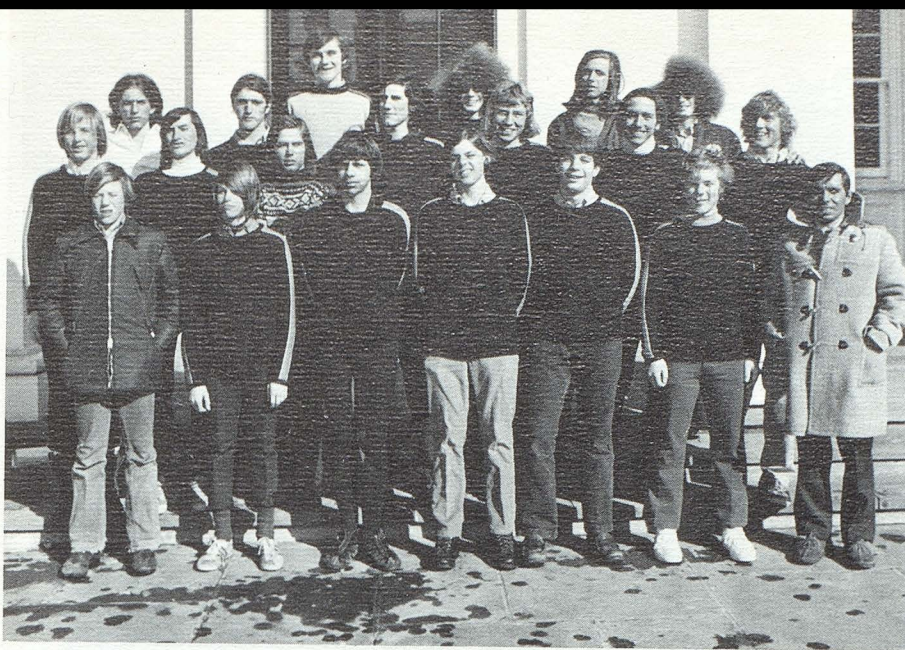

Graduating seniors who have been on the team for three years are Kristin Wiese and Cindi Kailey. Debbie Butler has been around for two years. Also leaving will be junior Colly Dorwart who has been with us for one year.

As for our first Nordic team, Anne Moystad showed a great deal of ability, followed closely by Debi Chaffee, Grace Warner, Linda Ratsep, Nancy Sullivan, and, when in desperation, Cindi Kailey.

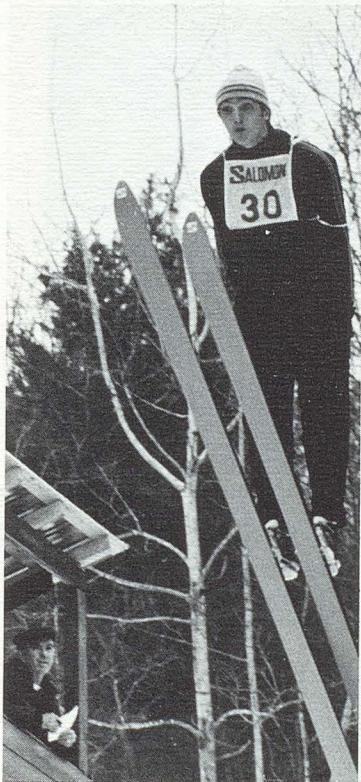

The girls' ski team has presented a trophy to Gould in memory of our unforgettable coach, Bill Crosbie. On behalf of the team, I would like to wish the best to his family and friends. I would also like to thank everyone for their help and support, especially Ken Remsen.

It's been fun and I hope that it will always be so in the future years.

The 1973 Gould Academy ski team experienced another average year in the annals of school skiing. With five top lettermen back, with the addition of two Norwegian all-stars and a bunch of rookies, has-beens, and never-were's, we embarked on a new season with our first meet at home against Edward Little. In the Giant Slalom Captain Baxter led the way with a win, with Wiese and Christensen riding on his coattails. After beating E.L. by five in the Alpine, we went into the Nordic too confident and got beat out by E.L. by a point. Horndalsveen and Wiese did well in the Cross-Country and Wiese and Frog DesRoches took a third and a fourth in the Jump.

After this close loss came the all-important Rumford Carnival, which is a warm-up for the State Meet. In the Alpine Gould showed that it was the top Alpine power by showing strength with the screaming "Crash" Christensen taking honors in both Giant Slalom and Slalom with Baxter right behind him second in the Slalom and third in the Giant Slalom.

Horndalsveen and Wiese rallied us in the Cross-Country after a miserable performance in the Jumping. We fell short of Rumford by five because of the 20-point defeat in the Jump.

After a defeat at Kennett's hands, which we won't talk about because of embarrassment, we came upon the important meet. We got off to a good start in the Prep School Championship (M.A.I.S.A.D.) where we easily handled all the prep school teams in the state. Wiese did well in all four events and earned himself a skimeister award. Baxter won the Giant Slalom and surprisingly ran well in the Cross-Country with a fifth. Nordic "Frog" DesRoches took a second in the Jump and a third in the Cross-Country.

Boys' Ski Team

"Shaky Legs" Shaw came through with a third in the Jump, with Jenness, who took fourth, showing excellent improvement. To top this, the man with all the if's and but's, Super Rookie David Nichols came through with solid performances in both Alpine events.

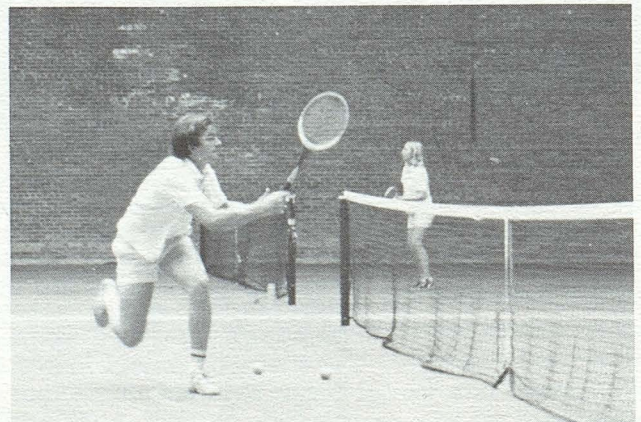

We continued to do well in the State High School Championships although losing Christensen to Eastern competition. Baxter continued to drive with a victory in the Giant Slalom (tied with Wiese), and a second in the Slalom. Wiese did very well with a tie with Bax in the Giant Slalom, a fifth in the Slalom, a third in the Cross-Country, a twelfth in the Jump and a skimeister award to top it off. Again Horndalsveen did well with the Cross-Country (fourth), along with "Frog" DesRoches, who also did well in the Cross-Country (sixth), and Jumping, thirteenth.

Although we did well, because of Jumping we had to settle for a third behind Rumford and Edward Little. What followed at the New England's can be termed a disaster in many respects. Captain Bax continued with good performances, a second in the Slalom and a fourth in the Giant Slalom. Behind him came hooked tips, lots of if's and but's; but either way our number two man in the Slalom, Tom Bailey, was thirty-fourth, and in the Giant Slalom Hayden Homes was twenty-sixth—not nearly good enough for a has-been, topnotch Alpine team. Our Cross-Country effort was poor with only Horndalsveen and Wiese in the top twenty. We won't talk about the Jump.

So we ended up seventh in the New England Class A competition, and as Chief talked about prospects for next year as we rode back in the Hog, one can only hope and wonder if Sam Bigelow can ever import some jumpers.

Well, we started out the season with about 14 people out for softball and by mid-May we were down to 7. We were never considered a "defensive team" yet neither were our opponents. Our record (8-2) was good and could only have been bettered if we could cut down on errors. When we settled down, we looked like a decent team.

Linda spent most of the season leaping around the small lakes that were in the outfield. Bunnie became our play-any-position star as she never seemed to play any position too much—partly due to Renetta's ending up as our base coach when she broke her finger. We had a strong catcher, Patsy, behind the plate.

Most Improved Player Jane Treworgy, second baseman, proved that anyone who really has determination can play. Lisa Reed, the Best Defensive Player, held down shortstop with the exception of pitching at Fryeburg. Captain Molly Matthews was the pitcher and Most Valuable Player.

I would like to say that I don't think we played a better game as a team than our last one at MCI. The final score was 32-31 but we all gave it everything we had and enjoyed playing. We learned this season that to win you have to play as a team.

The team would like to thank Stephie Bailey and Sally Seemann for filling up the holes left on the team during those last few games. Also we would like to thank Mr. Berry for the wonderful coaching job he did.

Good luck next year.

Track

KNEELING: Coach Vogt, Richard Getz, Ben Campbell, David Ault, Rick Brann. STANDING: Bill Jenkins, Topper Sprague, Win Thibodeaux, David Baldwin, Mike Moore. Absent: Tim Jewett, Henning Christensen, Gerti Veldmann.

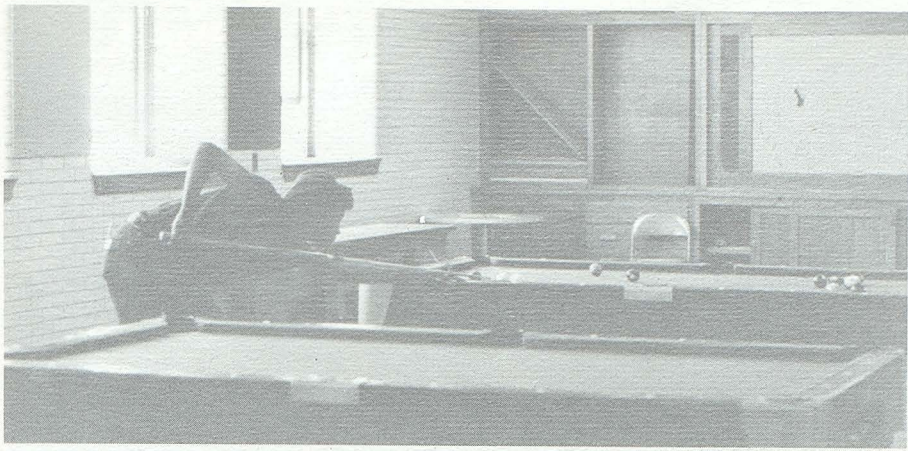

The spring of '73 saw the rebirth of a track team at Gould. Through the recruiting and coaching work of Mr. Vogt, the team became an active part of the spring program. Although our numbers were small and our record unimpressive, the team revealed some individual talent.

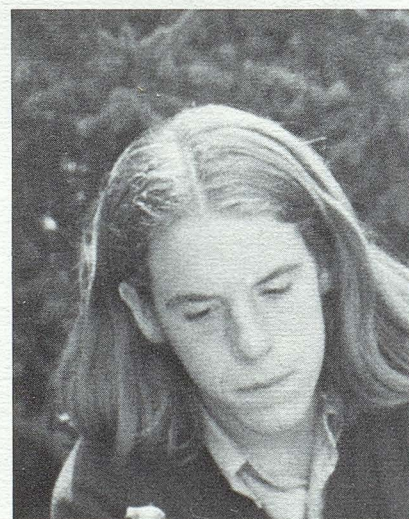

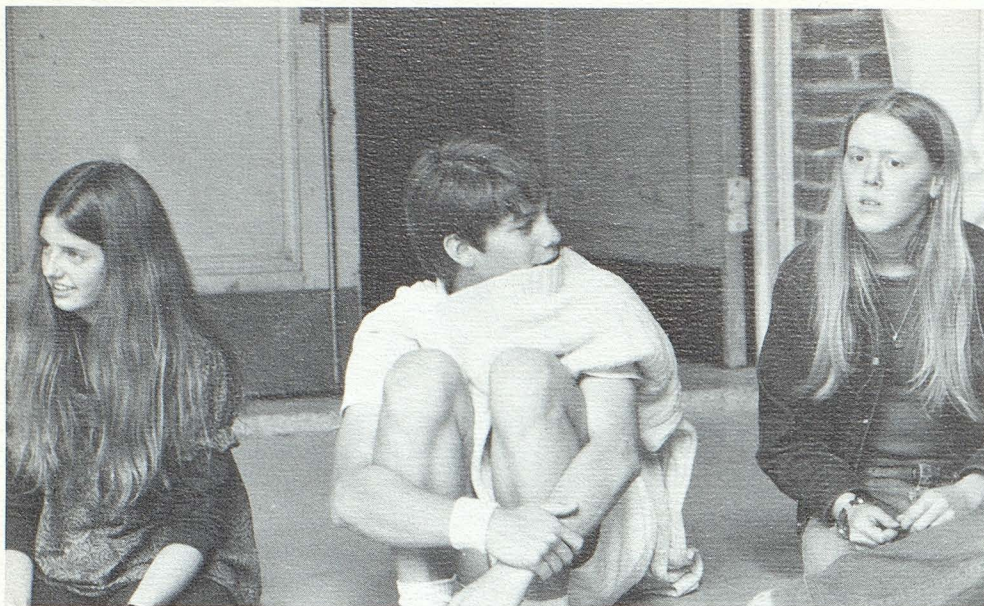

Win Thibodeaux, a newcomer to track, proved to be a valuable asset to the team. Win was a hard worker who ran from five to seven miles each day. He was rewarded for his work by placing second in the two-mile and third in the mile run at the MAISAD Championship. He will definitely be a runner to be reckoned with in the future. Henning Christensen placed third in the quarter mile in the MAISAD's. Tim Jewett scored the only first place for Gould by winning the half mile.

Track has nothing but a bright future at Gould. All but Henning, Gerti, Richard Getz, and myself will be back next year along with, I hope, some new recruits. Next year will also see David Ault, Mike Moore, Ben Campbell returning to pick up where they left off. With these and others, Gould track is definitely back to stay.
